

Spotlight on

Belgium

 440,591* animals used in research, testing and education

71%

I am very concerned about the use of animals in scientific research, testing, and education.

77%

More needs to be done to accelerate the full replacement of animal experiments.

77%

The European Commission and its Member States should develop a coordinated strategy to transition to scientific research, testing, and education without the use of animals.

74%

The European Union should be a global leader in moving towards science and innovation without the use of animals.